

2018-2019 Saegert Elementary Parent/Family Engagement Involvement Policy

In alignment with the district parenting goal, Saegert Elementary will maintain community programs which promote the academic, social, and emotional development of students. We will continue to provide many opportunities for parents to get involved. Saegert Elementary will host the following family and community activities:

- Open House
- Meet the Teacher Night
- Parent Paddock Sessions
- Fall Festival
- Volunteer Opportunities
- Pre-K /Kindergarten orientation
- Awards Assemblies
- Book Fairs
- PTA meetings
- Little Stallions reading club
- Family curriculum nights
- Science Olympiad
- Parenting Resource Library
- Watch D.O.G.S.
- Family Reading Nights
- Bring Your Dad to School Day

At Saegert Elementary, we promote communication between parents, teachers, through conferences, newsletters, telephone calls, weekly take home folders, home visits, Parent Connect, student planners and email.

Saegert will communicate with parents/guardians often and contact them about academic, behavioral concerns, and good news phone calls. Counselors will be available for parents to discuss behavioral issues or other concerns and provide necessary support.

Parents will be given opportunities to receive volunteer orientation so they may participate in various capacities that include PTA meetings, chaperone field trips and classroom support, and Watch Dog Dad's

Saegert is committed to the success of all students by modeling lifelong learning and by providing a safe learning environment through the design of engaging lessons. Our school motto is: "Work hard. Be nice."
