Phase I Applications are being accepted on a continuous basis.

Qualified applicants who are currently enrolled in a Killeen ISD school will be placed in our lottery for ECHS selection. If your child is moving into the Killeen ISD area, you are encouraged to complete and submit the application for ECHS; however, your child's application status will not be determined until he/she has enrolled in a Killeen ISD school.

Application status and selection notifications will be sent mail via the United States Postal Service.

Please call (254) 336-0260 with questions.

Note: Phase II of the application process will include the collection of two teacher recommendations and the completion of two essays, written by students, at school. More information and instructions will follow.
